R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)

78 State Street, Opposite Kilby Street Boston.

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of Inventions.

During eight months the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS; EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor by the Commissioner of Patents.

R. H. EDDY.

Testimonials.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners, with whom I have had official intercourse.
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges.

fe51S ALFRED SMITH.

Not a Drop More, Daniel.

Daniel Akin had become a common drunkard. So fully had he come under the dominion of his appetite, that he was perfectly miserable when he could not obtain the means of gratifying his thirst. He had neglected his family till his wife's father had taken her and her children to the parental roof. He had spent all his substance for drink, and was kept from the poor house only by performing menial services for his food, and by the kindness of Thomas Edgerton, a member of the Society of Friends, who had known him from his youth, and a strong hope that in the course of time he would see his folly and turn again into the right path. The leading merchant of the place had let him have drink as long as his money lasted, but would trust him no longer. He was loafing about the store one bright moonlight evening, pleading with the merchant to trust him for a drink. His reply was:

"Not a drop more, Daniel."

He remained a while longer and left.

As the cool air of the evening fell upon him, he all at once began to give utterance to his feelings in the following strain:

"Not a drop more, Daniel. Am I drunk, or am I sober? I am sober,—Not a drop more, Daniel. Did Haskins think a drop more would hurt me? No but my money was gone. He has got everything I had. He has got the Bible my mother gave me. He has got the shoes which my wife bought for Jenny, and paid for with her own earnings. Not a drop more Daniel. Daniel, what say you to that? I say so too. I had once good clothes, and now have nothing but rags. Not a drop more, Daniel, till I have others as good as the one. I pawned to Haskins for drink. I have seen the time when I had a good nice horse and buggy, and could ride into the village in as good style as any man in the place. Not a drop more, Daniel, till I own another horse and buggy as good as I once had. I once had cows which furnished my family with butter and cheese, but Haskins has got them. Not a drop more, Daniel, till those cows or others as good as those are mine again. I once had this wallet full of bills, but now there is not a cent. Not a drop more, Daniel, till this wallet is well filled again."

By this time he had reached the place where he had formerly resided, and he stood and leaned against the fence, and gazed for a long time in silence. He viewed the desolateness of the scene by the light of the moon; and his eye ranged over the house and barn once his own, which had become out of repair.—He then said;

"Once I owned this house and farm. Here I was born. Here my father and mother died. I was the pride of their hearts, but I brought down their gray hairs with sorrow to the grave. Here I commenced my married life, and all that heart could wish was mine. Here Mary and I took comfort till Haskins came here and opened his rum shop, and now he calls it his! In that south room my children were born; and there my Jennie died. O, how sorrowfully she looked when she saw me take her shoes and start for the store to pawn them for rum, while she lay sick. And then how she begged me, before she died, never to strike her mother again. I can see her now, her pale face, her wasted form, but she cannot come to me again. And O, my wife, how shamefully have I abused you! It was not your Daniel that did it. No wonder you were taken from me by those who loved you and would not see you abused. They won't have me in the house. They will not let me live with you. Not a drop more, till this house is mine again. Not a drop more, till these broad acres are again in my possession, and that wife and children that are living, are in yonder rooms, and we are a happy family once more. Not a drop more, Daniel, so help me God, till all these things are accomplished. I thank you, Haskins for those words. I shall not forget them."

He had become so much occupied with his thoughts, and spoken in a tone so loud, that he had not heard the wagon which by this time had reached the road, in which was seated the kindhearted Quaker who has been mentioned. He stopped his horse and heard distinctly the language which Daniel used. As he closed his soliloquy he turned and saw Thomas Edgerton, who said:

"Daniel, does thee mean to keep thy vow?"

He answered, "I do."

"Thee has promised a great many times that thee would drink no more.—What makes the think thee will keep thy vow?"

"I know, Friend Edgerton, I have often vowed to drink no more, but now I feel different from what I ever did before. My heart is broken, and I feel my weakness, and I believe God will help me this time."

"God grant it may be so, Daniel, get in and take a seat. Thee must be hungry; go home with me."

On the way the Quaker drew out of him all that had been written; and he advised him to go to California. He told him to go to New York, and work his passage round the Cape. He determined to do so. The Quaker furnished him suitable apparel.

"Thee wants to see thy wife and children before thee goes?"

"Yes, Friend Edgerton, I do, but they have become estranged from me. If I went, perhaps they would not be so — what I say. It is better that I should not see them. Indeed, it is better that they should not know where I am. I want to surprise them, as I hope to do, by coming back a sober man, and with money enough to make them comfortable. I prefer that you and your wife should be the only persons in the place who shall know where I am and what I am doing."

Thus while riding towards the quiet farm house of the Quaker, the whole thing was arranged. When they reached the place, the horse was put in the barn, and they entered the house. He said, as they took seats by the fire:

"Amy, thee may put on another plate. Daniel will stay with us a few days, and then he will go to California."

The benevolent Quaker was confident that Daniel Akin would keep his promise.

At length, when everything was in readiness, the old horse was harnessed, and before daylight Daniel Akin was on his way to a railway station. He had not been in the village since the night when the words, "Not a drop more, Daniel," were uttered. He was missed from his customary haunts, but it was supposed he had gone off on a spree, and so nothing was thought of his absence. His wife's father lived in the adjoining town, and some thought he had gone there.

No inquiries were made, for all where rejoiced that he was missing, and cared no for his return.

He had been gone somewhat more than a y ar, when the Quaker was in the store of H skins and remarked that he wished to hire a position the coming season.

"I have got one I will let you have free to rent of you will put up the fences on the place," said Haskins.

"Where is it?" said the Quaker.

"On the Akin farm."

"If thee will let it at that rate, thee must have let it get out of repair."

"It is so indeed; I cannot leave the store to see to it. The house is poor, and the family that lived in it last were too shiftless to buy wood, and burnt up all the rails. I had rather sell it than rent it."

"What will thee take for it?"

"It cost me some sixteen hundred dollars."

"Yes, but thee paid in goods and charged thine own price on them."

"To be sure I did; Akin could not get goods anywhere else, and I felt I was running a great risk in letting him have goods, and I charged accordingly, just as everybody else would do under the circumstances."

"Thee hast not told me what thee would take for the place; I will give thee eight hundred for it, if that is any object to thee."

Haskins thought long enough to conclude that the interest of eight hundred dollars was far better for him than the farm, for the use of which he realized scarcely anything, and said—

"You can have it."

"Thee can make out the deed to-morrow, and thee shall have thy money. By the way, does thee know what has become of Daniel Akin?"

"No. He has not been in the village for more than a year. At any rate I have not seen him."

COLONIZATION.

The Colonization Society asks Congress to appropriate $100,000 a year to support a steamship line from the United States to Liberia, and also an appropriation of $100, for each colored person who may be induced to emigrate to that distant country. We hope and trust that no such appropriation will be made. We are encouraging emigrants from all parts of the world to come to us, and assuring them that there is room in our broad land for as many as desire to occupy a place on this western Continent. And this is true. Why then should the Government set itself about the work of sending away a portion of our native born citizens on assumption that they belong in Africa and not here. If any persons, black or white want to go to Liberia, or Ireland, or France, or Germany let them go and pay their own travelling expenses. Our national finances are not in a condition to allow a portion of our people to travel at the public expense. And it is time that this nonsense about transporting the colored population to Africa came to an end. If southern nabobs do not want to live by the side of their black neighbors, both being regularly natives of the soil, they should themselves go away and let those stay that will. Some of them have tried Mexico, and some Brazil, and others who don't like the society about them can follow suit as soon as they please. There is no law against emigration and the people's money will not be given in support of the insane idea which this society of broken-down slaveholders and discomfited rebels have long been accustomed to cherish.

The Fashions.

The fashion correspondents are writing long letters on the Spring fashions. We clip the following which may interest many of our readers, as the subject is one in which all are more or less directly concerned.

THE NEW BONNETS.

The agony is over. The "openings" of new Spring bonnets have taken place, and it is decided that they are not to be enlarged for one season more at least; that chignons remain (literally) on the ascendant; and that, if any change occurs at all, it will be to get rid of bonnets altogether, and substitute a rose and little mantille of black lace in their place. But at present we have bonnets such as they are, and as they have been little changed from last year, they may quickly be disposed of. A diadem in front, arched over the forehead; a little crown, puffed or laid flat on the top; a fall of lace, black, white or colored, veiling the chignon, and carried forward to form second strings,—the first of narrow ribbon tying under the chin above the second, which cross lower down and are fastened with an ornament corresponding to those on the bonnet. That is a picture in brief of nine out of every ten of the new Spring bonnets. They are pretty little things there is no doubt, but they are of course, only little head dresses, which it seems are sure to expose to wind or weather, and which requires a mass of false curls and cushions to keep in place.

BONNET TRIMMINGS.

... colored Blondes and colored tulle plain and frosted. They are particularly valuable as helping to give that harmony of color, which is now considered so desirable in costume. They are to be used of course for various other ornamental purposes, but are best adapted for the making and trimming of "dress," or Summer bonnets. The new rage for gilt and steel used in Paris during the past season, and which therefore comes to us at a wrong time or just in time to be destroyed by perspiration and sea air, will probably overshadow the natural ornaments of summer-time fruits and flowers. But there are still some very charming wreaths used of. Lilly of the Valley, small buds and leaves of the wild rose and pretty arrangements of natural grasses. The latter are exquisite with a few fire-flies among them, upon black lace bonnets.

"WOODLAND" JEWELRY.

This is a name given to an entirely new kind of ornaments which will undoubtedly have some success. They consist of sets, including breastpin, ear-rings and sleeve buttons, or breastpin and ear rings alone, made of wood in the form of leaves, flowers, buds and small sprays, most admirably painted in natural colors. Ivy leaves upon which a lady bug has settled, balanced upon a stem; acorns, pansies, fuchias, and the like are all most faithfully represented, but the leaf design, grained in the darker and lighter shades with exquisite fidelity, appears to me the prettiest. There is no weight of any consequence to these ornaments, as they would not be objectionable on that account. They are not costly and would not be suitable in the place of diamonds, but they are appropriate and seasonable for country wear, pretty with white dresses and charming for young girls, or for a change from other or richer styles. The price is only from three to six or eight dollars per set, and certainly their simple and artistic beauty makes them worth infinitely more than the sham gold and glass stones so often worn.

The Impeachment Trial.

Perley writes to the Boston Journal of yesterday, concerning the impeachment.

THE GALLERIES THIN.

It is observed that the crowd is not to be compared with the previous days of the impeachment excitement. The galleries at 12 o'clock, when the Senate was called to order, were not more than two-thirds full.

There were not a dozen Senators present until 12 o'clock, the ones noticed being Messrs. Anthony, Wilson, Cameron, Grimes Williams, Ferry, Reverdy Johnson, and Patterson of Tenn.

WHO IS PRESENT.

The wife and daughter of Senator Chandler, the daughter of Senator Cameron, the wife of Senator Wade, Mrs. Senator Sprague and Nettie Chase, Mrs. and Miss Butler, Mrs. Logan, Mrs. Senator Morton, Mrs. Senator Cattell, Mrs. Secretary McCulloch and Mrs. Postmaster General Randall, are seen amongst the audience.

The Senators are all out in their best suits and the scene throughout is very gay and more in keeping with a holiday. There is nothing grave or thoughtful within view.

THE SENATE CALLED TO ORDER.

At 12.50 the President raps with his mallet and announces that the hour had arrived when the business of the Senate should be suspended and the House notified that the Senate was ready to proceed on the impeachment trial.

Mr. Trumbull required the resolution to be read, and said he thought that the trial ought not to begin till 1 o'clock.

After discussion the Secretary at 12.45 was directed to notify the Managers on the part of the House that the Senate was prepared to proceed with

THE TRIAL.

There are no Representatives on the floor of the Senate at this time, the only outsiders being Chaplain Boynton of the House and George Wilkes.

THE DEMOCRATIC MEMBERS ENTER.

At five minutes to one o'clock about a dozen Democratic members of the House enter, being unwilling to wait for the majority of the House. They take the best seats in the hall, and are apparently quite tranquil in mind.

THE HOUSE.

The majority of the House, in the meantime, are in line marching to the north entrance of the Senate.

THE PRESIDENT'S COUNSEL.

The President's counsel reached the Capitol soon after twelve, in the White House carriages, and went to the President's room.

THE COURT OF IMPEACHMENT.

At precisely one o'clock, Mr. Wade announced that the chair of the presiding officer would be vacated for the occupancy of the Chief Justice, who at that moment entered the Chamber and ascended the steps. He directed the Sergeant-at-Arms to make proclamation which was done in profound silence.

The Sergeant-at-Arms then went to the main doors of the Senate, threw them open, and the Managers entered and were announced.

The House of Representatives were next announced.

At the same time the President's counsel, came in and took seats around the table at the right of the Chief Justice, Mr. Stanbery occupying the head. Mr. Groesbeck takes the place of Judge Black, who is not present.

WORK BEGUN.

Silence having been resumed, Secretary Forney read the journal of the last Court.

The galleries by this time were fully occupied.

ATTEMPT TO BLOCK THE WHEELS.

When the reading was finished Mr. Davis offered a resolution to the effect that as a part of the States were not represented, a court for the trial of impeachment could not be legally organized until all the States were represented.

THE POOR BOY. Don't be ashamed, my lad, if you have a patch on your elbow. It is no mark of disgrace. It speaks well for your industrious mother. For our part, we would rather see a dozen patches on your jacket than hear one profane or vulgar word escape from your lips. No good boy will shun you because you cannot dress as well as your companions; and if a bad boy sometimes laughs at your appearance, say nothing, my lad, but walk on. We know many a rich and good man who was once as poor as you. There is our neighbor, in particular, now one of our wealthy men, who told us a short time since that when a child he was glad to receive the cold potatoes from his neighbor's table.

About Home.

—o—

COURT OF JUSTICE.—This morning, there was an unusually large attendance at this court to hear the examinations in the cases of the complaints against several boys and men for depradations committed on certain estates on the neck.

The complaint included the names of Milon A. Daly and William Murphy, soldiers of Company B Third U. S. Artillery at Fort Adams, who were arrested for stealing from the house of Newbold Edgar, several articles of value.—They were adjudged probably guilty and were ordered to be re-committed to the State's Jail in Newport for presentation before the Grand Jury at the Court of Common Pleas on the Third Monday of May next.

Another complaint was heard against Andrew Kirwen, William Sullivan, Garvey, James Pearce, James Manning, and Timothy Sullivan all minors under the age of eighteen for stealing from the premises of Arthur Bronson, Esq. Kirwen pleaded guilty and the others were adjudged guilty and they were all sentenced to the Reform School for and during their minority.

Neither of these complaints contained any count for malicious injury—but the injuries are all understood to have been committed at Mr. Edgar's residence by the boys the soldiers being supposed to be guilty of only stealing clothing from the same premises. It seems a small penalty considering the malicious nature of the vandalism perpetrated—but it is doubtful if bound over, whether or not more could have been done before a higher court.

A complaint was heard against David O'Connell for reveling. Adjudged guilty and ordered to pay a fine of $3 and costs.

A complaint was heard of State, George Jimerson, complainant, against George Easton, colored, for an assault. It appears that the parties had an altercation and there was since evidence that a knife was drawn by Jimerson at some time during the altercation, and there was an attempt to prove that the respondent, if he struck at all, did not strike until after he was justified by the complainant's making the final menace of assault. This was denied in toto by Jimerson, but the Court deemed the probabilities as favorable to the respondent that he was adjudged not guilty and ordered him to be discharged.

A complaint was heard against Catherine Meray—a Catholic girl who seems to be laboring under a religious fanaticism that amounts to a mania. She was complained of for disturbing the services at St. Mary's Church. She is hardly a suitable person to be at large, and yet is not a suitable person to be brought up on a criminal charge. She has lived with several of our most respectable families, and is said to be excellent help—when she is herself. But, at other times, she is accustomed to "speak out in meeting," and to remain in the church all night in a way thought to be dangerous to her own safety as well as that of the building, as she was discovered sometimes in close proximity to the furnace.

After calling several civil cases the Court adjourned.

THE BURGLARS ARRESTED.—Officer Peckham last night found two other boys who were concerned in the outrages of the past few days. Thus far there have been nine arrested,—Officer Steele taking four, and Smith, three. By the confessions of those now in the hands of the Police, only two others are still at large, and these will be brought in, it is thought, very shortly.

PERSONAL.—P. C. Shanahan, the Railroad Constructor, arrived in the city this morning. This is his first visit since the opening of the Opera House about three months since. He will immediately make arrangements to put up his residence, on the site of the Commodore Perry House.

RIGHT AGAIN.—The damages to the Gas Works have been repaired so as to give the usual supply of gas this evening. Candles and kerosene are no longer above par in the market, and light will again reign in all its usual brilliancy.

SNOW BALLING.—Last evening a lad in the lower part of the city was arrested by officer Peckham of the night police, for indulging in this pastime at the expense of passers by. After several belligerent attemps on his part, he was taken to the Station House, to meditate upon the evil tendency of such sports in the streets.

TRACT SOCIETY.—We call attention to the advertisement of A. J. Ward, in another column, giving some interesting statistics of the Depository in this city.

THE BAY STATE PRINT WORKS.—The buildings destroyed and damaged by the fire and boiler explosion have been rebuilt and repaired and the new machinery set up. The "help" commenced printing cloth Monday. The entire work has been under the immediate personal supervision of Mr. Charles E. Case.—F. R. Times.

Telegrams from Arkansas to Gen. Grant indicate the defeat of the Reconstruction Constitution by a decided majority. The election was held under the Supplementary law, which required only a majority of actual votes cast to ratify the Constitution.

SUDDEN DEATH.—The Fall River Times, says Jos. B. Weaver an old resident of Assonet fell in the street in a fit yesterday. He was immediately carried home and shortly after died. He was 69 years of age.

The President has nominated Major Burnside, of Illinois, a soldier during the late war, to the Senate for second Auditor of the Treasury in place of E. B. French. Major Burnside is a near relative of A. E. Burnside, Governor of this state.

THE NEW BEDFORD GLASS WORKS were partially blown down by the gale on Saturday last.

Several citizens of Boone county, Ind., who last year settled near Murfreesboro, Tenn., have been forced by the rebels in that vicinity to flee for their lives, merely because they were from a Nothern State.

TAUNTON RIVER.—The New Bedford Standard says Maj. Smith, who recently visited Taunton for the purpose of verifying the survey of Taunton river made in 1866, has reported to the war Department that the improvements asked for may be made upon that survey, as there have been no changes in the obstructions. He estimates the expense of improving the river as petitioned for at $26,000, and recommends an appropriation by Congress of that amount.

HEAVY DAMAGES.—Horatio N. Simmons of Millbury, in a suit against the New Bedford, Vineyard, and Nantucket Steamboat Company, has just obtained damages to the amount of $11,000, for injuries received by a falling boat on steamer Monohansett, in the summer of 1865.

Gen. Lorenzo Thomas is now styled Secretary of War ad interim.

Mr. John B. Gough is going to make an extended European tour at the close of the lecture seasons.

The Croton aqueduct furnishes 254 gallons daily to each of 65,000 houses, and that is insufficient.

A party of bloomers, in search of immortality, displayed their trowsers before Dickens at Rochester.

The South Carolina Republican State Convention has nominated a colored man named Cardoza for Secretary of State. Half the delegates elected to attend the National Convention at Chicago are colored.

Among the many restoratives which nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity, there is no more favorite one for a certain class of Diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve and to cure, is enhanced tenfold by scientific and judicious combination with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists to a remarkable degree in
Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection, and Incipient Consumption is inestimable.
Strong Testimony.
From BENJAMIN WHEELER, Esq., Depot Master at South Royalston, Mass.
"In the spring of 1858 I was most severely afflicted with a hard, dry cough, with its usual accompaniments of night sweats, completely prostrating my nervous system, and producing such a debilitated state of health that, after trying medical aid to no purpose, I had given up all hopes of ever recovering, as had also my friends. At this stage of matters I was prevailed upon through the influence of a neighbor to try Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and, before using two bottles, the effect was almost magical. My cough entirely left me, the night sweats deserted me, hope once more elated my depressed spirits, and soon I had attained my wonted strength and vigor. Thus has this Balsam, as has often been remarked by persons conversant with the above facts, literally snatched me from the yawning grave.—You are at liberty to use this for the benefit of the afflicted."
Prepared by SETH W. FOWLE & SON, 18 Tremont St., Boston, and for sale by Druggists generally.

The best known remedy for SCROFULA in all its manifold forms, including Ulcers, Cancers, Syphilis, Salt Rheum, &c., &c., is Dr. Anders' Iodine Water, a pure solution of Iodine without a solvent, discovered after many years of scientific research and experiment. For eradicating humors from the system it has no equal.

NICK OF THE WOODS ! ! !

Nick of the Woods !

IS THE

"FIRESIDE COMPANION."

GEORGE MUNRO & CO., have at an immense expense, secured the exclusive right of publishing that wonderful story of Border Life, in the "FIRESIDE COMPANION," which will be commenced in No. 24 of that popular Journal, issued on April 14.

"Nick of the Woods!"

"NICK OF THE WOODS"

is the most remarkable and exciting story of the kind that ever appeared, and is the Fountain-head from which myriads of Indian Tales have been derived.—Some of the characters are unequalled in the whole range of Fiction for a certain kind of weird, mysterious interest that hangs around them. For instance, the terrible Jibbenainosay, the "Spirit that walks," Bloody Nathan, the "Man of Peace," and Roaring Ralph Stackpole, the "Ramping Tiger of the Rolling Fork," who was equally at home whether stealing Red men's scalps, or a pale face's horse. The desire to read a story of such intense interest, of course, will be universal, and we trust that our friends will order the paper of their News dealers in season, to prevent disappointment.

The FIRESIDE COMPANION is the Best Family Story Paper published. It is for sale by all News-dealers. Price, 6 cents a copy; $3 a year; 4 copies, $10; or 9 copies for $20.

The Advertisers Gazette is the only publication of the kind in this country, and will be found of great value to every publisher and advertiser.

All solid advertisements are strictly classified, are thereby rendered more conspicuous, and offer greater advantages than can be secured by any attempt at display.

It will be observed that the GAZETTE has lately appeared in a new dress throughout, and we shall spare no expense that will tend to increase its field of usefulness.

We have for three years kept a list of all considerable advertisers, and it is very complete. To these names we are sending the GAZETTE, and they, in connection with its subscription and exchange lists, make the edition three and a half Thousand Copies.—As no other publication is devoted to the peculiar specialty of the GAZETTE, we believe no other possesses so many advantages as a means of attracting attention to the merits of newspapers as advertising mediums. mch5—4aw

TELEGRAMS.

FROM THE WEST INDIES.

NEW YORK, March 22.—The Herald's special telegrams from Cuba, to St. Thomas, St. Domingo and Porto Rico, state that there were strong shocks of earthquake at St. Thomas and business was paralized.

Gen. Baez had not arrived at St. Domingo. The cholera had disappeared. Awful shocks of earthquake were felt in Porto Rico, and the inhabitants in the port were fleeing to the ships for safety.

—o—

THE ERIE RAILROAD TROUBLE.

NEW YORK, March 23.—Governor Ward of New Jersey, has signed the bill passed by the New York Legislature granting a charter to the Erie Railroad Company. This renders the injunctions granted by Judge Barnard restraining the Company from issuing new stock of no avail, as under the new charter the issue of a large amount of new stock is authorized.

—o—

THE ABYSSINIAN WAR.

LONDON, March 23. Advices from Abyssinia continue favorable at last accounts. Nearly all the troops of the expedition had reached the high table lands. The roads were found to be very bad. The country yielded little to support an army except meal and flour, but a great quantity of stores was accumulated at Antolar, and large supplies were coming in there from the surrounding districts.

—o—

CABLE DISPATCHES.

BERLIN, March 23—Evening.

The second session of the Parliament commenced here to day. His Majesty King William of Prussia was present and opened the session in person. He particularly alluded to the important treaty, just concluded with the United States, which, he said was destined to define and regulate nationally and the consequent national obligations of emigrants from Germany and America.

This treaty would destroy all dissension between the two countries and knit more closely together nations already allied by the strong bonds of commerce and of race.

Washington Evening News.

NEW YORK, March 23.—[Special dispatch to the Providence Press.]—The Times Washington special says the election for Congressmen and other officers in Louisiana will take place at the same time as that for ratification of the new constitution.

Gen. Hancock has revoked his order in the premises, which, it will be remembered, directed the election to be held separately. He was induced to this action by a letter from Gen. Grant, which pointed out the language of the reconstruction acts, and thus indirectly intimated the proper course in the premises.

The Tribune's Washington dispatch says the President's answer to the impeachment articles to-day will be voluminous. His Cabinet it is said have prepared about forty pages of law paper closely written, which they will read to day.

The managers are ready to put in their replication immediately, and expect to be able to present it to the House for their approval on Tuesday, so that the trial may be begun on Wednesday.

The President continues his daily consultation with his counsel, and it is understood that he will appear before the Senate in person when the replication is filed.

WHAT IS IT?—We are constantly receiving inquiries, asking us what our Extract of Rye is. It is a simple extract, distilled from the best of rye, in a peculiar manner that makes it a pleasant, harmless beverage, or an active cure for all pulmonary complaints. It is sold only in bottles, by most all respectable grocers and druggists all over the country.

DR. L. DIX'S
PRIVATE MEDICAL OFFICE,
No. 21 Endicott Street, Boston, Mass., is so arranged that patients never see or hear each other. Recollect the ONLY entrance to his Office is No. 21, having no connection with his residence, consequently no family interruption, so that on no account can any person hesitate applying at his office.

boldly asserts (and it cannot be contradicted, except by Quacks, who will do or say anything, even perjure themselves, to impose upon patients) that he Is the only regular graduate physician advertising in Boston.
SIXTEEN YEARS
engaged in treatment of Special Diseases, a fact so well known to many Citizens, Publishers, Merchants, Hotel Proprietors, &c., that he is much recommended, and particularly to Strangers and Travelers.
To avoid and escape imposition of Foreign and Native Quacks, more numerous in Boston than other large cities, proudly refers to Professors and respectable Physicians—many of whom consult him in critical cases, because of his acknowledged skill and reputation, attained through so long experience, practice and observation.

DR. L. DIX

AFFLICTED AND UNFORTUNATE; be not robbed and add to your sufferings in being deceived by the lying boasts, misrepresentations, false promises and pretensions of FOREIGN AND NATIVE QUACKS, who know little of the nature and character of Special Diseases, and less as to their cure. Some exhibit forged Diplomas of Institutions or Colleges which never existed in any part of the world; others exhibit Diplomas of the Dead, how obtained, unknown; not only assuming and advertising in names of those inserted in the Diplomas, but to further their imposition assume names of other most celebrated Physicians long since dead. Neither be deceived by QUACK NOSTRUM MAKERS,
through false certificates and references, and recommendations of their medicines by the dead, who cannot expose or contradict them; or who, besides, to further their imposition, copy from Medical books much that is written of the qualities and effects of different herbs and plants, and ascribe all the same to their Pills, Extracts, Specifics, &c., most of which, if not all, contain Mercury, because of the ancient belief of its "curing everything," but now known to "kill more than it cures," and those not killed, constitutionally injured for life.

IGNORANCE OF QUACK DOCTORS AND NOSTRUM MAKERS.
Through the ignorance of the Quack Doctor, knowing no other remedy, he relies upon Mercury, and gives it to all his patients in Pills, Drops, &c., so the Nostrum Maker, equally ignorant, adds to his so-called Extracts, Specific, Antidote, &c., both relying upon its effects in curing a few in a hundred, it is trumpeted in various ways throughout the land; but, alas! nothing is said of the balance; some of whom die, others grow worse, and are left to linger and suffer for months or years, until relieved or cured, if possible, by competent physicians.

BUT ALL QUACKS ARE NOT IGNORANT.
Notwithstanding the foregoing facts are known to some Quack Doctors and Nostrum Makers, yet, regardless of the life and health of others, there are those among them who will perjure themselves, contradicting giving mercury to their patients or that it is contained in their Nostrums, so that the "usual fee" may be obtained for professedly curing, or "the dollar" or "fraction of it" may be obtained for the Nostrum. It is thus that many are deceived also, and uselessly spend large amounts for experiments with quackery.

charges are very moderate. Communications sacredly confidential, and all may rely on him with the strictest secrecy and confidence, whatever may be the disease, condition or situation of any one, married or single.

Dr. DIX having devoted over twenty years to this particular branch of the treatment of all diseases peculiar to females, it is now conceded by all (both in this country and in Europe) that he excels all other known practitioners in the safe, speedy and effectual treatment of all female complaints.
His medicines are prepared with the express purpose of removing all diseases, such as debility, weakness, unnatural suppressions, enlargements of the womb, also all discharges which flow from a morbid state of the blood. Peerless Cooking Stove.

HEAR what the Boston Journal says of this superior article:
Among the peculiar merits claimed for this stove is the complete ventilation and even temperature of the oven, making it a roasting rather than a baking oven, which is secured by a peculiarly constructed air-chamber, which heats the air as it passes down behind the fire pot and into the oven, causing the oven to bake or roast perfectly and evenly, a great desideratum with a careful housekeeper, the perfect control which can be kept over the fire, and its cleanliness. This stove works equally well with coal or wood. These stoves are of different sizes, and are made plain or with an extension top, the latter being made with a large reservoir for hot water on the top and a warming closet underneath. Those of our readers who would like to keep up with the times would do well to call and examine this "Peerless stove." Sole agent in Newport,

Oxygenized Air,

A CURE FOR

CATARRH

AND DISEASES OF THE THROAT AND LUNGS,

Applied by

DR. C. L. BLOOD,

No. 9 Montgomery Place,

BOSTON, MASS.

—IO:—

CHRONIC CATARRH.

Why entertain this loathsome disease when relief can be obtained? We meet those every day who are suffering from Catarrh to such an extent, that the Air Passages in the head are in a partly decomposed condition,—the nose and throat filled with such a mass of corrupt matter that they are objects of disgust to themselves, and of pity to those with whom they associate.

Chronic Catarrh usually affects the head, fauces and bronchial tubes. It is invariably caused by humoral or inflammatory blood, by which the mucous membrane is made sore or inflamed, producing a copious effusion of viscid matter. If it be produced by Scrofula in the blood it is almost certain to end in Consumption, unless speedily cured, because it is impossible to entirely prevent the matter from running down the Bronchial into the air vesicles, and such is the excoriating, or scalding property of the matter, its contact with the delicate linings of the alveolie at once causes irritation, and invites the humoral properties of the blood to deposit therein Tubercles and Ulcers.

Catarrh almost always attends Consumption, and frequently leads to it.

In Oxygenized Air we have a positive cure for this disease. The remedy is taken by Inhalation,—breathed directly into the lungs, and through them carried into the blood; thus as soon as the blood will carry it, it reaches all parts of the system, decomposing the impure matter in the blood and expelling it through the pores, and through the natural channels from the system. Thus you will see that the cause of the disease is removed, and the Greatest Relief must follow.

In this way manner we treat and radically cure Bronchitis and Consumption. Let no one suffering from these diseases despair of relief. If you are too far away to visit our office and see us personally, write a description of your symptoms, and forward to the address below.

Send for our circulars, which gives a description of these diseases.

Out of the many thousands of testimonials received we publish the following:

Dr. C. L. Blood,—

Dear Sir:—I desire to give you my testimony in regard to the value of your scientific system of treating Catarrh and diseases of the Respiratory organs. I have used your remedy, "Oxygenized Air," in my practice for the last year with complete success. I have cured the worst forms of Catarrh, and a majority of the cases of Bronchitis and Consumption in their advanced stages. I unqualifiedly pronounce "Oxygenized Air" the greatest boon ever yet conferred upon our suffering race, and hope the day is not far distant when every intelligent physician will adopt your system in the treatment of all forms of chronic affections.

Fraternally yours,
I. M. LEE, M. D.
No. 122 Westminster Street, Providence.

Dr. C. L. Blood,—

My Dear Sir:—I have tested your remedy, "Oxygenized Air" in advanced stages of Catarrh, Bronchitis and Consumption, and the results have been, in the highest sense, satisfactory; so positive am I of its wonderful power to arrest the progress of the above named diseases, that I can conscientiously advise all who may be suffering from them to place themselves under the treatment at once.

Respectfully yours,
Dr. E. TOMLINSON,

PRICE ADVANCED—PAR & INTEREST

THE

Central Pacific Railroad

THE WEST AND PRINCIPAL PORTION OF THE

National Trunk Line Across the Continent is being rapidly carried forward by an unprecedented working force; and it is reasonably certain that the CONTINUOUS OVERLAND RAILROAD CONNECTION FROM NEW YORK TO SAN FRANCISCO WILL BE MADE IN 1870.

The United States Government furnishes, upon a subordinate and contingent lien, half the means for constructing the Main Stem Line; and besides an absolute grant of 12,800 acres of valuable public lands per mile, the Central Pacific Railroad Company have received from California sources, donations and concessions worth more than $3,000,000. The available resources of this Company are therefore abundant for the purpose, amounting to $77,000,000 on the first 726 miles of the Line, including Loans secured by a First Mortgage upon the whole property, to the same amount only as the U. S. Subsidy Bonds.

The results already attained, although under comparatively unfavorable circumstances, afford substantial ground for believing the CENTRAL PACIFIC to be the Most Favored, Productive, and Valuable Railroad Enterprise in the Country.

In consequence of the large and rapidly increasing demand, the price of these Bonds has been advanced, and the Company are now offering for sale, a limited amount of their

First Mortgage Six Per Cent. Bonds,

Principal and Interest Payable in Gold Coin,

In sums of $1,000 each, at par and accrued interest from January 1st, in currency.

These Bonds, it is believed, possess the elements of safety, reliability and profit, in a greater degree, than any other class of Corporate Securities now offered, and are therefore very desirable for steady investments of surplus capital.

Investors will bear in mind the following advantages:

I. They are the first mortgage on one of the most valuable and productive lines of railroad in the world.
II. The actual earnings from local business in 1867 were more than four times the annual interest engagements.
III. The hard part of the work is now done, and the prospects of rapid completion are favorable.
IV. The Company have liberal facilities, which enable them to prosecute the work with great vigor.
V. The management has been exceedingly prudent and frugal.
VI. There is already a large and growing settlement on the completed and graded line.
VII. The lands promise to be of immense value, 57,638 acres having been already sold.
VIII. Both principal and interest are explicitly made payable in gold coin.
IX. Both the aggregate amount of issue and their standing in Europe will insure for them continued activity and a high rank among standard securities.
At this time they yield nearly

NINE PER CENT. UPON THE INVESTMENT.

Holders of Government Securities have an opportunity of exchanging them for Central Pacific Bonds, bearing an equal rate of interest, with the principal abundantly secured, and of realizing a profit of from ten to fifteen per cent. in addition.

Orders sent with the funds through responsible Banks or Express Companies will receive prompt attention. Bonds sent by return Express, to any address in the United States, at our cost. Information, Descriptive Pamphlets, Maps, &c., furnished on application at the office of the Railroad Company,

Something New.

THE GREAT AMERICAN TEA COMPANY OUTDONE.

W. & P. BRYER,

No. 15 Broad Street,

MAKE the following proposition: They will put up at the market price one hundred pound papers of English Breakfast Oolong and Hyson Teas, such as they are now retailing, for one dollar per pound, and deliver the same on the 25th of September at the residences of purchasers. In every tenth pound will be enclosed a one dollar greenback, so that the purchaser will get his tea for nothing. By this arrangement no one will pay above the regular price, so that there is no possible loss. As will be seen, the tea is sold on the average at a deduction of ten per cent., or at our which is simply what is proposed to be done.

We are only enabled to do this by our connection with an extensive wholesale tea-store in New York, from which we purchase at the lowest rates.

EVERY POUND WARRANTED.

If the tea when tried is not satisfactory it may be returned in exchange for any other kind or quality in the store. The whole thing is to be done on perfectly honorable principles, and is no catch-penny affair.

Orders may be handed in at once.

If the whole number of packages are not sold at the day of delivery the proportionate number will be disposed of according to the above terms.
These are not a cheap tea provided for the purpose, but a regular standard article. Other grades may hereafter be sold in the same way. Now is the time to send in your orders.
